Somerset House

Meet at 12:00 midday

Please come and join us to enjoy our Christmas Festivities in London.

We will start by meeting at the magnificent Somerset House with its giant Christmas tree, lights, ice skating, music, laughter and fun.

If you arrive a little early, please explore inside with its cafés, architecture and balcony overlooking the Thames.

Entry is free

There are toilets

Some of the special places we will experience...

The Middle and Inner Temples

The ancient Middle and Inner Temples of the Inns of Court.

Glitzy Sights

We will take our time to indulge the many glitzy sights in the heart of London, all ablaze with their Christmas charisma.

Regent's Park

We will walk through Regent's Park, Camden Market and Lock and along some of the Canal to the great Coal Yards...

Camden & Coal Yards

...where I'm sure you know... is no coal... but masses of excitement, music, cafés, bars and fun places.

Date

Saturday
5th December
2026

Start

12:00 midday
by the entrance to the skating rink at Somerset House.

Finish

Approx 6:00pm
at St. Pancras and Kings Cross.

Getting there

It is probably cheapest to purchase a cheap day return to the mainline only and pay for the one way tube to the Embankment with a Debit card "tap on and off".
The Northern line goes direct and Embankment is only about a ten minutes walk to Somerset House.

Facilities

There will be several café and toilet opportunities during the day.

*Do come and enjoy the adventure with us...
we will love to see you. ♥*
