

WHITBY 20TH TO 25TH SEPTEMBER 2026

Tony Sheward, Tom Collier and Roy Dunham are pleased to announce that the Whitby autumn holiday is now open for BOOKING.

We have a full programme of long and short walks ready to recce in April, including split walks in Whitby with its many attractions and a split walk to Robin Hood's Bay, the end of Alfred Wainwright's famous coast to coast walk.

Roseberry Topping, the Hole of Horcum, Staithes and the North Yorkshire moors steam railway villages of Grosmont and Goathland will all be visited.

A group evening meal will also be arranged.

We will be trying not to limit numbers on the holiday but we will see how bookings go.

The administration fee for the holiday is £25.

Please email Roy: roydunham10@gmail.com to join the holiday and await confirmation and then please pay the admin fee to:
