

RIGHT ROYAL RAMBLE

London Walk Saturday 9th July 22

This informative walk of approximately 11.5 miles uses the new (Queen) Elizabeth Line from Farringdon to the Royal Woolwich Arsenal, and later we walk through the Borough of Royal Greenwich.

Here are some of the highlights:

- 1) Travel from Farringdon on the newly opened, £20 billion, Elizabeth line
- 2) See the transformed Historic Royal Arsenal
- 3) Walk along the Thames Path passing The Woolwich Free Ferry and Subway
- 4) Thames Barrier
- 5) Pass under the Emirates Cable Car Crossing
- 6) Round the O2 Arena, walking over the Blackwall Twin Tunnels
- 7) View the Cutty Sark
- 8) Visit Europe's largest City Farm

Meeting place 8.15 at Bedford Railway Station, you will need to purchase a super saver return combined with a one day Travel Card, cheaper in a group or using a rail card.

Taking a train at approx. 8.45, alighting at Farringdon, where we will meet any others joining the party, at the entrance to the station, outside Timpson's Shoe Repair Shop, leaving there at 10.15.

Unfortunately, because of getting the group on and off trains, it is necessary to restrict the size of the group to a maximum of 40, therefore if you wish come please text my mobile 07989 307046 to reserve a place
